

1. What was / has been your occupation before entering politics?

I was a welder, working in paper mills as well as being an entrepreneur, a teacher and a city councillor in Gatineau.

2. Do you live in the riding and, if so, how long has it been your home? I live 6 minutes away from my riding, and have been living here since childhood. My family is originally from Notre-Dame-de-la-Paix and Grenville.

3. What has been your main involvement with your community outside of work (volunteer activities, etc.)? Volunteering in sports, Jeux de la francophonie, youth groups, community groups, municipal politics (seniors, public security, youth, leisure).

4. In your life what event, or book, or speech, or song or even TV show has made the biggest impression on you and your political thinking? Why?

Political and municipal debates. Many times I felt dissatisfied and it made me want to get involved so I could make a difference in people's lives.

5. What previous politician (alive or dead, but not currently in parliament) is a role model for you? Jean Chrétien for his outspokenness.

6. What policy in your party's platform do you think matters most to the people in your riding? First, I think all the measures regarding the middle class and helping families have better lives and more time with their children.

And second, putting the environment at the heart of our concerns. We will achieve net-zero emissions by 2050.

7. Recent polls suggest many Canadians are disillusioned with politics. If elected, what would you do to address those concerns? Continue working closely with our municipalities, our community groups and being there to support the population of my riding. My team and I have been present to help the citizens of Argenteuil-La Petite-Nation. I'm a hard worker, I'm present and will continue to be there for my constituents after October 21st.
